

RANDY EFROS BIO

Randy Efros of Phoenix, Arizona is a passionate Fine Art photographer working with traditional film based black & white and color mediums. He worked extensively with Cole, Kim and Brett Weston and was honored to be Brett's last assistant in the early 90's. His life is devoted to the continual creation of new images. Randy also gives private tutorials and teaches at a variety of workshops including the annual Weston/Efros Workshops at Hospitalfield in Scotland, and he has been Artist in Residence at the Academy of Art in San Francisco. A prolific photographer, his photographs are in public and private collections worldwide.