

Bio

Malcolm Lightner received his MFA from Arizona State University in 1999 and has been on the photography faculty at the School of Visual Arts since he moved to New York in 2000. His photography was selected for exhibition in the Art + Commerce “Emerging Photographers Festival” in DUMBO. His work is also represented in the permanent collections of the Ogden Museum of Southern Art. He is currently the Director of Operations in the BFA Photography Department at the School of Visual Arts and continues to teach photography courses at SVA and Media Bistro in New York City.

Malcolm Lightner, photographer. BFA, magna cum laude, Savannah College of Art & Design; magna cum laude, Arizona State University. Group exhibitions include: Art + Commerce: Emerging Photographers Festival, Brooklyn; The Red Gallery, Savannah; Galerie im Traklhaus, Salzburg; 3carpileup, Phoenix. Permanent Collections include: Ogden Museum of Southern Art. Publications include: LIFE Magazine, Photo District News, Phoenix New Times, Photography in New York International, Visual Arts Journal. Stock and Editorial Representation: Corbis, New York.