

CASA'S GROWTH TIMELINE

CHANGES NAME TO CASA CENTER FOR POSITIVE SOCIAL CHANGE

2012

Casa's mission and prevention education approach dramatically changed and increased by teaching positive social and emotional competencies. As a result of this shift in focus, Casa has achieved significant positive outcomes for youth helping them to understand their motivations, interact positively with one another, learn skills to build confidence and become a more positive force in their surroundings.

BEGINS TEACHING BULLY PREVENTION PROGRAMS

1995

Always with the goal to "seek the root of the problem" of abuse and violence, Casa expanded our services teaching programs to prevent children, and teens from becoming abusive people teaching bullying prevention education programs soon to become the largest provider and experts on bullying prevention in the state of Arizona.

ADDS VICTIM COUNSELING SERVICES

1976

Casa then adds counseling services providing counseling for over 30 years to approximately 40,000 children, teens and adult female and male victims of abuse; particularly sexual exploitation and violence.

2005

BEGINS TEACHING SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING (SEL)

Casa significantly expands Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) programs to teach positive emotional intelligence skills while replacing negative behaviors to help guide students to refine their thinking, learning and communicating skills to manage their emotions and reach their greatest potential.

1985

BEGINS DATING VIOLENCE PREVENTION PROGRAM

Casa creates a teen dating violence prevention program teaching healthy relationship skills reaching over 60,000 teens.

1980

BEGINS PREVENTION EDUCATION PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN

Casa created a sexual abuse prevention program reaching students as young as pre-school to teach them how to recognize, refuse and report abuse and violence. To date, Casa has taught this program to 1 million children resulting in stopping abuse for thousands and helping in the arrest of numerous sex offenders.

1973

OPENS 24- HOUR HOTLINE AND ADVOCACY SERVICES

Casa's opened a sexual assault, sexual abuse and domestic violence crisis response hotline and victim service in Valley ER rooms. Over two decades, Casa became the largest crisis hotline in Arizona, serving over 150,000 children, teens and adult callers, and assisting over 12,000 victims of abuse and violence in ER rooms.